

Neglect Getting Bad's Polio Shots?

When police are the hardest, some parents in the group have not yet injected their children with the vaccine.

The first shot of vaccine begins to take effect from 7 to 10 days after it is given—at that time, polio-fighting antibodies can be found in the blood stream. The second shot brings a sharper rise in antibodies. But long-lasting protection develops only after a third or booster shot 7 months to a year later.

In the Salk vaccine, mankind has a powerful weapon over paralytic polio. But the weapon is of no avail unless used. And rest we must not until every young Mississippian has the full dosage of vaccine.

Colmer Renominated For Thirteenth Term

Rep. William M. Colmer (D-Miss.), returning to the Congress for his 13th successive term, promised a continuation of his policy of approaching problems on a non-partisan basis.

Colmer was reelected as the 16-county Sixth Congressional District representative in Tuesday's Democratic primary.

Upon a basis of incomplete returns from 309 of 368 precincts in the district, Colmer received 20,312 votes. His opponent, Wayne L. McClure, Hattiesburg salesman, had 1,239 votes.

Colmer piled up huge majorities in every county.

Colmer expressed gratification today over the "generous vote of confidence given me."

MAKES STATEMENT

In a statement released at his residence in Pascagoula, Colmer said:

"Even though the race was an unspirited one, I am naturally gratified over the generous vote of confidence given me by my people. More could not have been expected.

"I accept this new commission in all humility, conscious of its responsibilities in these troublesome days.

"I can best express my heartfelt appreciation by a continuation of my policy of approaching the problems presented from the point of my state and country's interest rather than upon a partisan basis."

In most Coast counties, Colmer received overwhelming endorsement.

It was 687 to 32 in Hancock where 17 of 25 precincts reported; Jackson County gave the congressman 2357 to McClure's 123 in complete unofficial returns from 30 precincts; and in Stone's 10 precincts Colmer led, 345 to 19.

Eight of the precincts reporting in Harrison gave Colmer all votes cast including 134 to 0 in West Pass Christian and 165 to 0 in Lizana.

William L. Hewitt Dies Of Heart Attack On Highway 90

William L. Hewitt, 60 years of age, died at the wheel of his automobile Saturday morning about 10:00 o'clock, when he suffered a heart seizure, while driving on Highway 90 about four miles west of Bay St. Louis.

Hewitt's car left the roadway and ran into a ditch, reported State Highway Patrolman Fred Curet, who investigated the happening.

A former resident of New York, Hewitt and his wife were occupying a cottage at the San Beach Motel-Court, Mississippi City. He was a booking agent for night club acts.

The body was brought to Bay St. Louis by the Fahey Funeral Service. Services were held Wednesday afternoon from the funeral home, with interment in Garden of Memory Cemetery, Bay St. Louis.

In addition to his wife, Baby, Hewitt is survived by a son and a daughter, who were in New York at the time of their father's death.

"Belvedere" Starts Tonight

For pure entertainment value "Belvedere" by Gwen Davenport is, as the French would have it, "sans doute." Opening with the angle of mistaken identity the play unfolds in a delicately insouciant manner that will entertain the most critical.

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre has chalked up another of its inevitable successes with this comedy redolent with human interest. Those of you who are familiar with the "Belvedere" series which Clifton Webb did so successfully on the screen will surely want to see the splendid replica in Paul White who plays the lead. White has a distinct flair for suave comedy and in this instance uses all his resources in giving an authentic portrayal. He has the happy knack of bringing gales of laughter with a mere lift of the eyebrow or flourish of a hand. In this writer's opinion "Belvedere" is one of the best pieces of work White has done so far. Opposite White is Jane Wiggins, who plays the part of a young matron, the harassed mother of two zesty boys, whom Belvedere has engaged to sit for. Mrs. Wiggins does her lines with a soft naturalness and a distinct drawl which adds weight to the characterization as a perfect foil for White. Rex Rector, a very valuable find and a worker who has had extensive theatrical experience, does a notably fine interpretation as Harry King, the distaff side of the domestic scene. Too much praise cannot be extended Mr. Rector. He has a stage presence which is rare in one who has never performed before, providing that he can act as well as produce plays. Mike Larroux and Ricky Stechmann add great interest as well as amusement to the delightful play. Both boys are clear, prompt on cue and completely flexible. The highlight of the evening comes in a scene when they both demand that the babysitter send them a bed-time story. Ezelda Ling, who always promises excellent entertainment lives up to her reputation as being line-perfect. Doc Keefe, with an opportunity to do something different than he has done in the past plays, gives credit to the role of snooty Mr. Appleton, supported by Kay Ripple as his crochety and aged sister, who nevertheless downs two jiggers of sherry with alacrity. Charles Robertson, another newcomer, shows great promise as a thespian. Although he had few lines, most of them ob-modulated voice and poise were notable. Jack Husband rounded out the fine cast as the newsman and photographer and kept the situation well controlled when a tricky camera refused to click.

The play has been directed by Dr. John Husband, who is in the director's chair for the first time in our organization. Infinite patience and a great amount of sacrifice goes into the direction of a play and this one reflects the good-natured efforts of Husband. Mention must surely be given Kay Wilson, a maid of all trades, who has added another talent to her already inexhaustible store. There was a need for a sculptured bust of "Belvedere" and Kay, the grande artiste, was called upon. Never daunted Kay undertook the job, was so successful at it that Paul White requested that he be allowed to retain it at the close of the play.

The setting, done by Kay Ripple is a pleasant, uncluttered one with the addition of some of the excellent painting that Betty Farrington, our local art instructor, has done.

SPEED TIMERS ARE EFFECTIVE AFTER TRY-OUT

Mayor John Scalfide told the Eagle reported the publicity on the Electric Speed Timer had proved somewhat effective in cautioning motorists to be aware of driving too rapidly through the city.

"However," said the Mayor "we are still checking and will use the device for at least another week to ascertain correctly the streets where speeding is most prevalent. We hope that all motorists in the city will realize the grave dangers they create when violating speed regulations, and drive more carefully."

"It is also an added hazard when school children are on the streets, and with schools opening next week, we hope to have the full cooperation of every driver in making our city a safe place for all."

During a hard rain in mid-afternoon Monday, one man was killed and two seriously injured in a head-on collision about five miles west of Bay St. Louis on Highway 90.

The accident occurred in front of Thos. Layne's Service Station, with Mrs. Layne and her daughter eyewitnesses. Mrs. Layne summoned officers and aid.

Identified as dead is Stanley Lavelle Davis, 23 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Davis, Pensacola, Fla.

Davis, a medical student at L. S. U., was enroute to New Orleans from his Pensacola home when the tragedy occurred.

He had transferred to L. S. U. after two years of study at the University of Louisville, Ky. Injured are William Avery Edensfield, 21, 807 Operations Sqdn, Marsh AFB, Calif., whose condition was listed as serious, and William J. Robinson, Sr., 80, whose address in Calif. is not learned. Robinson was a passenger in Edensfield's car.

Patrolman William Kenny investigated the accident. He reported Edensfield, driver of a 1954 Cadillac, ran off the pavement of the road onto the rutted dirt area, and in attempting to bring the car back onto the pavement, lost control and swerved onto the west side of the highway on which Davis, driving a 1954 Chevrolet was coming. The two cars crashed head on.

Edensfield was jammed in his car, Kenny said, and wrecker service called from here had to free him with the use of an acetylene torch. Both injured men were brought to Gulfport Hospital by the Fahey Ambulance Service. Edensfield was later transferred to Keesler Field Hospital.

Patrolman Kenny reported Edensfield suffering from contusions of the chest, brain concussion and facial and body lacerations. Robinson sustained a broken hip and possible rib fractures.

Dr. Charles Wacom announced Davis dead on arrival at the scene of the accident. A coroner's jury was held at the scene with Emile Piazza, Hancock County Coroner present.

ABOUT YOUR HOME

You should always set a good example for your children, but don't try to be perfect. Teaching children to understand others is just as important as your being understanding toward them. No child can imitate the picture of the perfect adult who never makes a mistake.

It is important for children to know that every human does something wrong at one time or another. This will tend to keep him from becoming a perfectionist, a sad fate for anyone. Explain that you still love people, even though they make mistakes. Each child must learn that persons closest, as well as those distant to him have imperfections. During an ordinary day, mothers have many chances to offer sympathetic understanding to children. This, done in the proper way, will help develop understanding of others in their children.

Never try to cover up your obvious errors with weak excuses. Often the youngest of children can sense when an explanation isn't the entire truth. Instead of making excuses or remaining silent, admit your forgetfulness and carelessness to them. Tell the children how angry you are with yourself and that now you resolve to be much more careful next time.

From this the children get the picture that though you sometimes make mistakes, you strive to correct them and not make them again. They'll also gain insight into understanding the problems and frailties of others.

Never have an argument with your husband in front of your children. This will make them feel insecure and greatly damage their personality if allowed to happen often. Don't lose control your temper before your children. In time this will cause your children to lose a certain amount of respect for you and will also teach them to have little control of their tempers.

Fishing in spots has been good this week. With Pearl River clear green trout have been caught regularly. Speckies have been caught at the Keys and Half Moon and according to reports Mackerel have been jumping like mullets all the way from the R. R. Bridge to in front of Wave-land. Saturday and Sunday they were caught aplenty and shiners and silver spoons from the R. R. bridge.

This weekend has been looked forward to for a long time and it feels good to have a couple of days off in a row. All kinds of sports will be indulged in and a record crowd is expected all along the Gulf Coast.

Among the events over the weekend will be the Knights of Columbus Fair with lots of fun for all attending. Plans have been made for Big Things.

The 3-day golf tournament at Pass Christian Golf Course should be a humdinger. Prizes and everything!

The public beach will be crowded no doubt with many visitors as well as home folks. It's a swell place for these enjoying swimming, especially for the kids!

Yacht Club activities will be clean when you put them back on.

Take a bath after spraying and put on clean clothes.

Wear respirator that is equipped to handle phosphates at all times when dusting cotton with insecticides containing phosphates.

Never go to the field alone. Make sure that someone is close by to watch the person applying insecticide.

In airplane application, the pilot should never handle insecticide and then fly the plane.

Keep people out of the field for at least one day after applying phosphate insecticide.

Contact local doctors and have antidote pills and know how to use them. Have them handy at all times.

Watch out particularly for skin absorption. Phosphates are absorbed 10 times as quickly as chlorinated hydrocarbons.

If a person using phosphate insecticides becomes sick and unconscious, give artificial respiration until you get him to a doctor. The person usually smothered to death because the oxygen in his system is absorbed by the phosphate.

HAY SAVING

Here is some information that you already know about. It is just a reminder.

Soybeans for hay should be cut when the first seed pods form. Lespedeza should be cut when it first begins to bloom, Johnson grass when the first seed heads form, grass meadows when the grass begins to seed out.

Alfalfa should be cut for hay when it is in about one-tenth bloom, Sericea when 15 to 16 inches tall, Coastal Bermuda when 15 to 18 inches high.

Quality of hay is determined by the stage in which it was cut and by the manner in which it is cured.

Most damage is done by leaving the hay in the sun too long and losing the color and the leaves.

Sudan and Millet can be used as hay, but they are hard to cure.

LIME

Liming is a must on pasture land to have good pastures. Contact your county agent for information on value and cost of a liming program.

Following are the new members of the Bay St. Louis School for the year 1953-54: Robert Vernon, Miss. State of High School Science graduate of Mississippi from Tyler, Tenn.; Ruth Longest, teacher and girls' Physical Education Coach from Bruce, Miss.; graduate of Delta College and doing graduate work at University of Mississippi, Hollyfield, 7th grade from Moss Point, Miss.; graduate of Mississippi Southern, Kilgus, a graduate student of Mississippi Southern, Spring, Miss., teaches Social Studies in the 8th grade.

High School will again of course in Drivers' Education. High School students of the 8th grade.

High School building is renovated at the present time to improve its usefulness for the school year. This is being done by a contractor, C. C. McDonald, for the State. Funds for this renovation are obtained from the State on the basis of number of students in the Bay St. Louis Public Schools and the Average daily attendance as set up by the Legislature.

Mississippi Highway Patrol Drivers' Licenses Not Renewed

The Mississippi Highway Patrol drivers' license division reveals that more than 20,000 Mississippi drivers' licenses which expired in March through June of this year have not been renewed.

According to Commissioner of the Highway Patrol, the project will be followed by the construction of a Homecoming and Shop Building for the Valena C. Jones School.

Funds for this project were also obtained from the State on the same basis. At a later date classrooms to house elementary students will be built under the same plan. When these improvements are completed Bay St. Louis will have a well planned and equipped group of school buildings. This expansion of its facilities has been brought about as a result of a plan of reorganization of schools in Hancock County as set up by the State Finance Commission under laws of the Legislature of 1953. Hancock County schools have been divided into two Administrative units; one a Municipal Separate School District unit in Bay St. Louis including the former Waveland School and one unit comprised of the other schools in Hancock County. This same organization is being carried out in all counties in the State of Mississippi and is supposed to be completed prior to July 1, 1957.

Public Safety. Tom Scarborough, many persons holding invalid operators licenses may be doing so unaware that their licenses have expired.

It is urged that all drivers periodically check the expiration date recorded on the front of each license and renew the license prior to its expiration date.

L. E. Birdsong, director of the Patrol drivers' license division, states that notices of expirations are mailed to all motor vehicle operators prior to expiration. He pointed out, however, that many persons change addresses frequently, and some expiration notices are returned by postal authorities.

Mississippi law requires that no person will operate a motor vehicle upon the public streets and highways of the state of Mississippi without first securing an operator's license. This permit must be renewed promptly; any person operating a motor vehicle without having a valid operator's permit in his or her possession is doing so in violation of the law.

POLIO INCIDENCE IN MISSISSIPPI IS CLIMBING

Polio incidence in Mississippi is climbing and March of Dimes funds are being consumed at a rapid rate in providing care for patients, according to an announcement by V. T. Anthony, State Representative of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Eleven Mississippi chapters of the Polio Foundation have exhausted local funds and national headquarters of the March of Dimes organization has sent emergency aid totaling $29,775.00.

Latest counties to receive funds were Monroe, $1,000; and Rankin, $700. Other counties receiving funds this year are: Benton, $1,200; Clarke, $11,100; Copiah, $4,825; Covington, $2,150; Kemper, $1,025; Pearl River, $1,800; Perry, $2,100; Sunflower, $3,000; Yazoo, $1,275. Several other counties will shortly need emergency funds, the Foundation official said. The cost of continuing care for cases stricken in previous years is always heavy.

In 1955, Mississippi chapters of the National Foundation spent $304,180.53 in March of Dimes money for patient care. Of this amount $251,594.02 was for continuing care of old cases, and $52,586.51 for services to new cases stricken during the year. The total requirements for polio patient services in 1956 is estimated to exceed $300,000 again.

The State Board of Health has reported 50 new cases of polio for the first 24 days of August, as compared to 30 cases for the same period last year. The total for this year stands at 143, while on the same date last year there were 134. The five-year average for Mississippi polio cases up to this time is about 260.

Hind county with 16 new polio cases leads all other counties so far this year. Jones County is second with 14 cases. Forty-four other counties have had from 1 to 9 cases, while 36 counties have had no cases at all. Of those stricken with polio this year, only a few mild cases occurred among those who had received the Salk Vaccine.

The Gulf Coast has been established a potential rice-producing area by an experiment in Hancock County. Rice was grown on 127 acres in the Kiln Community, producing 75 bushels to the acre, compared to the average 32 bushels field for other sections. Irrigation was by the 12 artesian wells.

Better things usually cost more

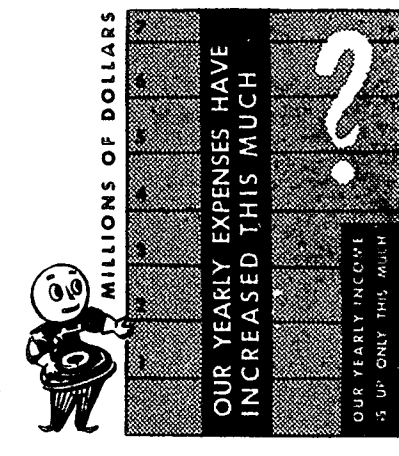

Not so long ago, a popular make of car cost around $500... but today's improved model of the same make costs a lot more!... It's the same with refrigerators, stoves, or homes... Today's improved models cost more to produce and we must pay more for them.

Mississippi's telephone service is far bigger and better today than it was on April 5, 1949 — the last time the Public Service Commission set lawful rates for the Company... We've invested many millions of dollars to provide improved service for thousands and thousands of new telephone subscribers... labor, taxes, increased costs due to additional investment have increased our operating expenses by approximately 7% million dollars a year while our income has risen only 3% million dollars yearly.

That's why we've asked the Public Service Commission to study our income needs and fix new rates that will be fair to the Company and to telephone users.

NATURAL GAS Helps put "ZOOM" in the Jets!

The next time you see a jet streaking through the sky, think of natural gas pouring through those roaring engines. Natural gas carries with it many liquid hydrocarbons as it comes from the well, and one of those liquids — kerosene — is the basic component of jet fuel.

United Gas alone produced more than 187 million gallons of kerosene, natural gasoline and similar products last year. Natural gas is essential to aviation, and to many other industries. It is an important factor in attracting industry to this area.

You will not want to miss this scintillating comedy. It is the sort you have been asking for and the Labor Day weekend is an excellent time to see it. To those of you who will be forced to leave us temporarily after this

ENTERTAIN AT LUNCHEON

The Leo Seal house was the scene of a delightfully informal gathering Wednesday, at noon, when Mrs. Seal entertained the current board and past presidents of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club.

Sprays of Rose of Montana trailed gracefully from a low silver bowl on the dining room table, which was spread with a handsome embroidered and lace inserted imported linen cloth.

The 1956 retiring president, Mrs. Waldo Otis, who had served the club for two seasons as president was presented a gift of a beautiful leather bag from Board members who had served with her during her terms of office.

Presentation of the gift was made by Mrs. Erle Kirkpatrick, first president of the club, when it was organized in 1938.

Among other presidents who have served the club were in addition to the hostess who served during 1941, Mrs. Frank Kiefer, June 1942 to June 1944; Mrs. J. T. Prowell, who served from 1944 to 1945 was not present; Mrs. J. R. Scharif, June 1945 to June 1946; Mrs. Eugene McGabgab, June 1946 to June 1948; Mrs. J. R. Rollins, June 1948 to 1950 was not present; Mrs. Geo. Stevenson, June 1950 to June 1951; Mrs. Oliver Radford, June 1951 to October 1951, was not present; Mrs. W. W. Baltar, October 1951 to June 1952; Mrs. Walter C. Hava, June 1952 to June 1953; Mrs. Charles Beyer, June 1953 to 1954 was not present; Mrs. Waldo Otis, June 1954 to 1956 and Mrs. Al Voight, who took office June 1956 and will serve during the coming year.

weekend we would like to announce that the play following "Belvedere" has been chosen and approved and will be prepared for production sometime in October. "To My Husband" by William Faulkner, a native of New Orleans, will introduce an entirely new theme taken from a real situation.

"Belvedere" is open to the public for a small donation at the door, so do bring your houseguests out for a completely happy evening, to-night, to-morrow night, August 30, or Saturday night, the 31. To greet you will be Miss Helen Robinson, Mrs. and Mrs. Walter Ogden and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Argue; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Griffith; Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Mollere and Dr. and Mrs. W. L. McFarland.

WAVELAND WANDERINGS

GEORGETTE B. HALL

"Goodbye to summer hello schoolbooks" will be the happy or unhappy refrain of teenagers this week as they register at the public schools on Friday of this week and others prepare to start the regular winter session Tuesday, September 3. Students attending Bay High School will find that a great many changes have taken place during the summer and many more welcome and needed renovations are planned.

Just prior to the opening of school, Waveland always experiences one of the largest crowds of the summer, for everyone wants to enjoy to the fullest the last full holiday weekend before school starts. Therefore, we are looking forward to having our visitors and their guests, but we urge that everyone will observe every rule of caution in driving, swimming and boating. Let's make the Labor Day a safe and sound one for your sake as well as ours.

Miss Mary Perkins, principal of the Waveland School, is home after surgery. Mary has been confined to the hospital in Hattiesburg, Miss., where she was attending school when she was stricken. Mary will not be able to be her energetic, busy self for a while, as her doctors have advised rest. This column and all her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

The Fair last week on the grounds of St. Clare's Catholic Church was a big success. The proceeds from the fair will be added to the fund for the Parish House Teenage Building. There is a great need in the community for such a building and thanks to all who helped to add to the growing funds for this project.

Miss Geraldine Bourgeois, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bourgeois, celebrated her birthday last Friday evening with a party held at Villere's Lounge on Coleman Avenue. The group of teenagers enjoyed delicious refreshments and dancing. Wishing Geraldine the very best of birthday wishes were Patricia, Barbara Ann and Joan Villere, Vickey Lally, Steve Decker, Bob McComiskey, Billy Blanke, Richard Fayard, Albert John Grass, Cathy Pettigrew, Susie Pettigrew, Marilyn Castell, Don Byrd, Seth Crippen, Marcel Anderson, Bobby Van Calsem, Charline Miller, Marilyn Noonan, J. D. Bourgeois, Ronnie Pique, Lynne Pique, Betty J. Merz, Richard Bourgeois, Patsy Noonan, Grace Ann Bourgeois, Freddie Bourgeois, Ronnie Favre, and Clyde Bourgeois.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Glossinger and son, Wilbert. Mrs. Hamilton, of New Orleans, left Sunday with her son, Mr. Wilson, and his family for a motor vacation to places of interest in the State of Michigan.

Sympathy is extended to the relatives and friends of Mr. Sam Carver who died this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Sallows of Bay St. Louis were recent guests of Mrs. T. H. Brockman Monday.

ATTENTION! ALL TEENAGERS!
It's a well known fact that you like to dance and eat and meet friends. There's no place where you are more welcome and where you can really have a good time than at the Waveland Youth Center, Waveland School. Be sure to mark Friday, September 13, on your calendar as one of the high spots in your fun making. You are invited on that night to attend an Open House Party and you will be the guests of the Center. Free snacks, free drinks, and dancing to the top twenty nine tunes will be part of the good time to be had that evening. You can arrive about 7:00 p. m. and stay until 11:00 p. m. And mothers and fathers, the youngsters are carefully chaperoned by parents who watch the "young fry" just as you would.

Incidentally, kids, the Youth Center is open every Friday night. Don't wait until the 13th to have a good time. Bring your friends and meet the others to-night.
